

EPISTULA PRIVATA

Ad Iuliam Ianam, filiam Senatoris Gaii Cornelii Iani, apud Vindolandam in Britannia

Julia Jana, daughter of Senator Gaius Cornelius Janus, at Fort Vindolanda in Britannia.

Your posting has been confirmed through the appropriate channels. The servants I have assigned will ensure your material needs are met. They answer to you in all things.

The posting is not arbitrary. There are matters in that region of interest to the Gens Jana — older than the current garrison, older than the frontier itself. You will know them when you encounter them. In such matters, trust your divine inheritance over your military training.

Come home with a commendation and a story worth telling.

The Jana name does not end in Britannia.

*Senator Gaius Cornelius Janus
Gens Jana — Roma*
